NEW YEAR

For each of us and for the nation the New Year provides an opportunity to check over accounts, list assets and liabilities, and to lay plans for something better.

Although the old year has been a tough one, we like to hope that most of the bad news of the war is behind us. We should be braced for some military reverses, but we have some substantial grounds for hoping that the New Year may be the last one of the war in Europe and the beginning of the end in Asia. We are proud of the efficient fighting machine our democracy has created.

Meantime we have a year of other accomplishments on which to look back. In the first place, the political crisis which all other nations are now facing or will have to face before long is behind us. We have counted the votes, we have debated the issues, and we have set the course.

In the second place, the industrial crisis—the enormous problems of production and conversion—is also behind us. We shall have to be everlastingly at work to fight the war of production, but our production establishment is ready, we trust, for any demands the war can place upon us. We know that no other nation could have made as much war material and delivered it as we have had to do. It is not a perfect job by any means; but it was well enough done to give us confidence that we can, if we will, solve other great problems.

These other problems—those of maintaining our ideals of a free world, of striving to perfect our own form of society and government, of taking care of our war casualties and the veterans and their families, of designing a peace at home and abroad that will be just—are for us to face in 1945. On the basis of the old year, we can face these problems with confidence bred of the bitter struggle that they too will yield to our intelligence, hard work and sincerity.

DRAFT QUOTAS GO UP

It is not surprising that the intensity of Germany resistance on the Western front is forcing our Army chiefs to revise their manpower requirements. The victory that seemed but weeks away in the early fall has now receded deep into 1945.

In line with the increased military needs, California's draft quota will be 20 per cent higher in January than originally scheduled. In February, it is expected to be 40 per cent above December. This will mean some occupational deferments will be revoked. Physical standards will be less exacting, and many who have been rejected will be re-examined.

California rural communities are watching the draft developments with especial interest. At this time of the year labor needs on the farms and in the transporting of farm produce are comparatively low. But there is concern lest much of the manpower needed during the summer and fall will be drawn into the armed forces during the winter.

This would create conditions even more serious than those which have faced farmers and commercial truckers in the past two or three years. With California crops comprising 10 per cent of the Nation's food supply, it is apparent that sufficient help must be made available to farmers for the harvesting and to truckers who transport almost the entire farm output to markets and canneries.

Undoubtedly these needs will not be ignored by draft boards.

IT MAKES YOUR HAIR CURL!

The absence of nylon stockings has been a blow to the glamour—and vanity—of American women, although we hasten to add they still are the best dressed and the best looking women in the world.

But if our gals think they have their troubles, let them listen to this: In Chungking, a woman was fined $5,000 for getting a permanent wave. Curly hair is taboo in China. Why? We don't know.

Spartan Service

ROMAN STRIPE TAFFETA gives spartan service in reviving a tired suit of basic dress. The hard working gilet is on the market if you're too busy to sew, but CBS actress Gertrude ("Perry Mason") Warner says it can easily be made by the home dressmaker. The fabric must be cut on the bias, folded halter-like around the neck and held in place at the waist with a self-material belt.

The trip from Seattle to Vancouver, B. C., to Victoria on Vancouver Island, and back to Seattle, is known in the Northwest as "the triangle trip."

News Delay Due to Faulty Addresses

News concerning men overseas, of vital importance to their families, is often delayed unnecessarily due to failure of dependents to notify the War Department of changes in address, the Ninth Service Command Adjutant General's office, Fort Douglas, Utah, declared today.

In one month as many as 4,000 telegrams were returned to Washington, D. C., because the addressee could not be found, official reports reveal. Practically every case of non-delivery was due to failure of the addressee to report the correct and complete address.

In keeping records of America's millions in service, the Adjutant General's office accepts the responsibility of notifying families as soon as possible after a serviceman has become a casualty.

Receiving this news late, or from other than official sources, is a great hardship to a soldier's family. Telegraph offices receiving messages for delivery cooperate fully in attempting to locate addressees and exhaust every possible means prior to returning them to the War Department.

However, it is necessary to return thousands stamped "ADDRESS INCORRECT."

Emergency addressees who have moved after departure of a soldier for overseas duty, or for other reasons, are urged to inform the Adjutant General's office, War Department, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: Casualty Branch.

Both new and old addresses should be given in addition to the soldier's full name, rank, serial number, organization, and his APO number.

Four pounds of fresh grapes are required to produce one pound of raisins. Three pounds of plums are used to get a pound of prunes, and 5 1-2 pounds of fresh fruit are required for either a pound of dried peaches or dried pears.

FRESH FOODS PROVIDED FOR HUNGRY SOLDIERS

Approximately 70 per cent of the food served by "Gee-Eye" cooks in the United States is perishable, and requires careful and immediate preparation, the Ninth Service Command Quartermaster pointed out today.

COTTON GOES TO WAR

Compared to the average civilian need of 20 pounds of cotton annually, the average soldier requires 250 pounds, the Ninth Service Command Quartermaster announced today.

"DOUGHBOY" PA HAD LESS EDUCATION THAN GI SON

Of the soldiers in the present war 23.3 per cent are high school graduates as compared to 3.5 per cent of the soldiers in World War I, the Ninth Service Command School division announced today at Fort Douglas, Utah.

ASF RESPONSIBILITIES ARE TREMENDOUS

Movement of troops, disposal of military installations and the flow of men into reception and separation centers are among the many activities of the Army Service forces, it was pointed out today at Ninth Service Command headquarters, Fort Douglas, Utah.

TIRE CHAINS VITAL TO WINTER DRIVING

When used properly, chains can prolong the life of vitally important automobile tires, while careless use of chains will damage tires as much as ice and snow, the Ninth Service Command Ordnance officer warned today.

"GEE EYES" RATE BICYCLING TOPS IN RECREATION

Among the most popular recreations of overseas returnees at Army Ground and Service Forces Redistribution Station, Santa Barbara, California, is bicycling.

1500 MILITARY POSTS NOW ACTIVE IN U. S.

There are at present 1500 posts, camps and installations or their components functioning throughout the nation.

The Palace of Fine Arts, last standing landmark of San Francisco's 1915 Panama-Pacific Exposition, is now being used by the Army.

Qualified Entry

SIMPLER, FEWER AND BETTER clothes, the clever girl's solution to a limited wardrobe, requires studied consideration of conservative styles. Seeking an all-purpose dress, CBS actress Charita ("Second Husband") Bauer hit upon a collarless wool crepe in complexion-flattering aqua. The solitary ceramic button and fluted edge of the overblouse give decorative detail to slender, fitted lines. Don't overlook the tricky soft pleat dropping from a smoothly tailored shoulder.

IDEAS ABUNDANT—SAVINGS DITTO

The Army Service Forces program, "Ideas for Victory," through adoption of 13,000 economy suggestions, has saved an estimated $11,000,000 since inauguration in June, 1943, it was announced today by the Ninth Service Command civilian personnel division at Fort Douglas, Utah.

SOME RACKET!

The Treasury Department, Police department and Better Business Bureau of San Francisco joined forces recently in an attempt to locate a young man who has defrauded local housewives by collecting money for War Bonds and nylon hosiery.

Complainants state that the man first telephoned them, stating he was an official of a downtown women's specialty shop and that in order to boost War Bond sales, the shop would sell a pair of nylon hosiery for $1.44 to every War Bond purchaser. When they agreed, he promised to send a man around to their home to collect the money.

The complainants report that they were told that they could call at the shop within a week to pick up the hosiery and the bond, but that when they called at the shop no one there had any knowledge of the matter. No receipts were given to any of the victims.

The Bureau again pointed out that it is exceedingly unwise to pay money to strangers, and asked that any housewife approached on a deal of this kind should report the facts to the Bureau for investigation as soon as possible.

HOLY SCRIPTURES ARE GIFT TO SOLDIERS

Distribution of 581,660 books of Holy Scriptures at Army Service Forces installations in the United States has been made by Army chaplains in the past 40 months, the Ninth Service Command Chaplain said today.

ARMY PRINTING JOBS SPEEDILY PRODUCED

In 20 days the field printing plant at Fort Douglas, Utah, produced 217 standardized printing and reproduction jobs for Ninth Service Command installations.

"C" RATIONS DRESSED IN RUGGED WRAPPER

Type "C" rations, for fighting men overseas, are now shipped in rugged Victory fiber board containers which have withstood as many as 100 handlings en route to final destinations, it was reported today by the Ninth Service Command Quartermaster.
